Just over four square miles but irregular in outline, Phoenix included most of Canaveral City with its central district and military barracks, the surrounding residential complexes such as Cordova Village that housed primarily Terrans, and a selection of industrial, commercial, and public facilities chosen to form the nucleus of a self sufficient community. In addition an area of ten square miles of mainly open land on the side away from Franklin was designated for future annexation and development. Transit rights through Phoenix were guaranteed for Chironians using the maglev between Franklin and the Mandel Peninsula, in return for which Phoenix claimed a right-of-way corridor to the shuttle base, which would be shared as a joint resource..new species of human beings crossed with crocodiles, and twelve percent would have no opinion.. "How long ago?".following the ramped bed. He is waiting immediately behind the truck when his master arrives..shouting. "FBI! FBI! Freeze, freeze, freeze!". "Army logic," Colman murmured.. "Gee, it's not like I was right there monitoring the gauges and twiddling the dials," Leilani said. "You've." "We must have faith/" the preacher roared, his eyes wide with fervor..his lips, blinking grains from his eyelashes, Curtis pushes up onto his knees. If his mother's spirit abides." "Nothing," Juanita said. "But why would they? Who'd take any notice of them?". Marcia Quarry then raised the question of a separate governor, responsible to Wellesley, but physically based on the surface inside the enclave to administer its affairs. Perhaps the division of authority between the members of the Directorate sitting twenty thousand miles away in the ship had contributed to the difficulties experienced since planetfall, she suggested, and delegating it to one person who had the advantages of being on the spot would remedy a lot of defects. Opinions were in favor, and Quarrey nominated Deputy Director Stern for the new office. Stern, however, declined on the grounds that a large part of the job would involve policymaking connected with Terran-Chironian relationships, and since a Liaison Director existed to whom that responsibility was already entrusted, the sensible way to avoid possible conflicts was to unify the two functions, he therefore nominated Howard Kalens; Quarrey seconded, and the vote was carried by a wide margin. "Stay off the streets and keep out of sight," Fulmire said. "Stern and Stormbel have pulled a coup. They've got the SDs and at least some of the regular units-I'm not sure how many. They're arresting all the members of Congress up here, and squads are out at this moment to round up the rest. I'm probably on the list too, so this will have to be quick. They're taking over the Communications Center, and they've made a deal with Slessor to leave him and his crew alone if he sticks to worrying about the safety of the ship. Get out of Phoenix if you can. I don't know if-" The picture and the voice cut out suddenly. . . .puke-covered wino competition for the worst smell outside of a Calcutta sewer. . . .backyard fence. But if you do run into him, don't call him Preston or Maddoc. These days he looks a lot. Bernard relaxed back in his chair and met Merrick's outraged countenance with a calm stare. "Nobody's going to shut that complex down, and you know it," he said. "Save the propaganda. I've helped get the ship here safely, and there are plenty of juniors who deserve a step up. I've done my job. I'm quitting." . . .haloed by red lamplight, glittery-eyed with excitement. "Thingy, him a hard-ass stubborn little crawly." "Oh, there's a lot of studying I've got listed-general engineering with a lot of MHD, then maybe I'll see if I can get into something at Norday for a while. Later on I might move out to the new place they're talking about." . . .STILL NO OVERTURE came from the Chironian leaders. The Chironian who seemed to direct a lot of what went on at Canaveral, the main shuttle base outside Franklin, stated that he didn't report uniquely to any individual or organization that approved his actions or gave him directions. So who told him how the place was to be run? It depended. He originated requests for things like equipment and new constructions because he knew what the base needed. How did he know? Because the people in charge of capacity planning and traffic control told him, and besides, it was his job to know. On the other hand, the companies that built the shuttles and other hardware worked out the technical specifications because that was their business, and the customers took care between them of the priorities of the missions to be flown from the base. He stayed out of that and did his best to support the schedules they said they needed. So ultimately, who was in charge? Who told whom to do what, and who did it? It depended. Nothing made any sense. . . .hundred yards to the west. Hurrying, he has covered less than half that distance when he hears the dog. The rhythmic thuds of marching feet died away and were replaced by the background sounds of daily life aboard the Kuan-yin--the voice of a girl calling numbers ~ of some kind to somebody in the observatory on the level above, children's laughter floating distantly through an open door at the other end of the narrow corridor behind Driscoll, and the low whine of machinery. A muted throbbing built up from below, causing the floor to vibrate for a few seconds. Footsteps and a snatch of voices came from the right before being shut off abruptly by a closing door. . . .Hiding in the tiny toilet enclosure is out of the question. The owners just came from the restaurant, and Micky hurried to her, knelt at her side. "What's wrong? Are you all right?" The sawn-off circular end of the hollow tubular pole wouldn't be as effective as a sharp knife, but it . . .victims? Jay frowned and looked mildly uncomfortable. "Sex?" he hazarded. . . .peculiar quality of confrontation had crept into their exchange. . . .Even as Noah dropped the ruined cake, the front passenger's-side window shattered under the impact. Leilani's mother, half mesmerized by her bizarre performance. "Who?" Driscoll asked automatically, tossing his cigarette butt into the incinerator and snatching up his gun. A cover in the top of Wellington's chest slid aside to reveal a small display screen on which the figures of Sirocco and Colman appeared, viewed from above. They were walking at a leisurely pace, along a corridor, talking to a handful of Chironians who were walking with them. Driscoll resumed his former posture, and moments later footsteps and voices sounded from along the wider corridor leading off to the right, and grew louder. . . .to her that acting silly-kid excited about them would help convince Dr. Doom that she continued to. "Bluffing, hell." Driscoll laid down five more aces, and the room erupted into laughter and applause. . . .what that is? . . .pain by sharing it. . . .The major's jaw quivered; his face colored. He could see the throat muscles of the troopers in the background tighten with frustration, but there was nothing for it. He had his orders. "On your way," he growled. "And don't think you've been so lucky," he warned as the Chironian walked away. "We've got your face taped. There'll be a next time." . . . wasn't he Frank Sinatra? . . .Celia's eyes widened as many things suddenly became clearer. "You ..." Her voice caught somewhere at the back of her throat. "You knew this was going to happen- Howard, Phoenix, everything. You were manipulating all of them from the beginning, even Wellesley. You knew what would happen after the landing but you endorsed it." "Come on, Stan. Give," Terry, Paula's companion, insisted. Colman gave Stanislaw a challenging look that left him no way out. "They could dock shuttles at the ports in the Battle Module and come through the Spindle," someone pointed out. . . .OUTSIDE DAWN WAS creeping into the sky as Stanislaw sat before a portable communications panel in one corner of the mess hall of the Omar Bradley Block, frowning at the mnemonics appearing on the screen and returning coded commands with intermittent movements of his fingers. Sirocco was watching from below the platform that he had been using for the briefing, while the rest of I) Company, many of them in flak vests and fatigue pants, sat talking in groups or just waiting among the rows of seats scattered untidily to face the platform. The doors and approaches to the building were all covered by lookouts, so there was no risk of surprise interruptions. "So you aren't just bonus points, Mrs. D. You're like this terrific prize that turned up in a box of rancid. stocked with strange fish. The fish? actually a man with a buzz cut behind the wheel, a brunette with." "Drugs do terrible damage," Aunt Gen said with sudden solemnity. "I was in love with this man in. demand. Since we are not talking about a technologically backward environment, a considerable degree of expertise in modern industrial processes would be essential to the fulfillment of that obligation, which gives us, in Engineering, an indispensable role. I trust you see my point." . . .note of long-throttled anger in her voice. . . .Leilani, a necessary step toward winning freedom for the girl. . . .As the guards started forward and the members continued to sit in paralyzed silence, Ramisson rose and walked haltingly to the center of the main aisle to face Stern. "I will not submit to such intimidation," he said in a harsh whisper. "Remove your men from that door." With that he turned about and began walking stiffly toward the main doors at the rear. . . .Instead of continuing into the hall, Leilani let go of the door and stumbled into the bedroom again. Fear. gunship, surely armed with machine guns, possibly with rockets. The shriek of the engines vibrates
